

Please make sure the do not call list stays in place. I have no patience for those telemarketers. Don't they realize if we need something...we will go out and find it ourselves...we do not need them to call us a 9 at night to try to sell us something!